

2022 UQ Rugby Benefit Lunch

In partnership with The University of Queensland in America (TUQIA)
Thursday 10 November 2022

As UQ's premier event of the year in New York, the UQ Rugby Benefit has been staged since 2014 (excluding 2020-21).

The event features a panel of renowned Australian and international rugby legends, and raises funds for TUQIA (The University of Queensland in America) priorities, the UQ Rugby Club and Play Rugby USA.

The benefit is a great opportunity to network with fellow Australians, high level New York based professionals and executives around the theme and spirit of rugby. This year's panel includes CEO of LA Gilitinis and former Wallaby, Adam Freier and CEO of Rugby New York, Ric Salizzo with more speakers to be announced.

Past companies represented at this event include Qantas, Dow Chemical Company, The Flight Centre Group, and more.

In 2022 the event will be staged as a lunch, as we work towards reinstating the dinner as a flagship event again in 2023 - a Rugby World Cup year.
