

Notification of a gift in your Will

Thank you for choosing to leave a gift in your Will to The University of Queensland. A gift in your Will is special and a highly-valued way of supporting students, researchers, and the community for many years to come.

Please use this form to notify us of your intentions and to provide instruction about your wishes for privacy and acknowledgement. Anonymity, if desired, can always be maintained. We would also be delighted to have an opportunity to thank you and to include you in UQ's community of benefactors, during your lifetime.

YOUR DETAILS

Given name(s) _____ Family name _____

Address _____

Mobile _____ Telephone () _____

Email _____

I am happy for UQ to acknowledge my gift in its honour rolls.

I would like to remain anonymous.

UQ AFFILIATION

UQ graduate Staff member Past staff member Volunteer Other: _____

MY GIFT

An amount: $ _____ A percentage of my estate: _____ %

The residue of my estate Other: _____

My partner has also included the University in their Will.

GIFT PURPOSE

To establish a scholarship for _____ valued at $ _____

To support research into _____

To establish an endowment fund for _____

To make a lasting impact where it matters most by supporting The University's Greatest Need.

I have chosen to leave a gift to The University of Queensland because: _____

I understand that this notice does not bind me, but is an expression of my intention to support the University of Queensland in my Will.

Donor signature _____ Date ____ / ____ / ____

Please return your form to Advancement, Level 7, JD Story Building, The University of Queensland, Brisbane QLD 4072 Australia.

For more information about making a gift in your Will, including wording for your gift, please visit giving.uq.edu.au/bequests-endowments or contact our Bequest and Planned Giving Manager, Nina Mullins.